FIFTEEN-DAY RACE MEET

IT IS PROBABLE FOR 1904 IF JULY MEET IS A SUCCESS.

Carloads of Runners Will Be Shipped Here from Worth and Latonia Tracks-News of Horses.

The first shipment of running horses to the Indianapolis track to be started in the July events of the Indianapolis Racing As- | then. sociation's meet will be two carloads of fast thoroughbreds from the Latonia track. The spring meeting at Latonia closed yesterday and a number of fast ones will be brought to Indianapolis the latter part of this week to begin training for the big meet here from July 4 to 11. Henry Carroll will make the shipment from Latonia. Lyman K. Davis, who will have charge of the running races of the big combination meet, has written Secretary Holt that two carloads of fast ones will be shipped from the Worth track within a few days. Secretary Holt says the number and class of the horses to be seen here in the running events in July will greatly exceed and excel those started at last year's meet.

The Indianapolis Racing Association announced, yesterday, through Secretary Holt that a fifteen days' meet will be given in Indianapolis next year, providing the seven days' meet next month is a success. The 1903 meet should be a success for the purses and stakes offered are double the amount given by the association last year. The intention of the association is to offer purses | speed in sight, should not leave this and stakes for the fifteen days' meet in 1904 that would attract all of the best stables in the country, instead of only a few of them.

STAKE EVENTS. The three stake events for the harness horses, to be given during the meet, promise to furnish very good racing. The Wholesale Merchants' stake, $1,000, is on the programme for Tuesday, July 7. The Merchants' and Manufacturers' stake will be given on Wednesday of the meet, and the Hotel stake on Friday. M. H. Reardon's Henry G., entered in the M. and M. stake at Detroit, is training at the Indianapolis track and will be started in some of the big events during the Indianapolis meet. Other well-known entries have been received for the various stake and purse events.

Secretary Holt expects there will be at Miss Jeanette, by Acolyte, miles are least fourteen starters in the Indianapolis 2:35, with quarters in 34 seconds. Max Derby purse event, which will be the principal running event of the meet. This event comes on Saturday, July 4, the opening day of the big meet. The Indianapolis handicap, the second largest running event, will be run on the closing day of the meet. The amphitheater and stands at the fair grounds will be decorated with the red and white, the Indianapolis Derby colors, and nearly all the hotels and down-town stores will also be decorated with the colors dur-The association has sold the pool-selling privileges for the next month to C. The Passing of Tod Sloan.

While the cable foreshadowed the news of what looks like the final eclipse of Tod Sloan, it was generally shelved until the later and more voluminous advices arrived. It seems that, not content with outraging half a dozen canons of the English Jockey no earthly right to ride the filly without tle to Sloan; he rode roughshod over the foolish idea, and rode the filly at work and exercise. This was entirely without the permission of the officials, or, possibly, the knowledge of the owner of the filly, who stands clear from any suspicion of connivance in any shape or form.

The French Jockey Club, naturally, could not disregard such a flagrant violation of all the decencies, and promptly ruled Tod Sloan off the French turf. This, at a time when it was an open se-cret that within a couple of weeks or so Sloan would have been given a license to ride on the English turf. This is now an impossibility. It is to be regretted for many reasons. Sloan was undoubtedly one of the finest horsemen America ever had, and there was plenty of room for him in any country in the world. He has, however, a curiously ill-balanced brain, and simply could not behave decently to save his life.

Will Not Abandon Morris Park. August Belmont has set at rest definitely all speculation as to whether there would be any racing at all at Morris Park next year. He said there would surely be two more meetings at the old course, the autumn meeting of this year and the spring meeting of 1904. Belmont Park, so far as the track itself, the grading, the landscape design and the transit facilities are concerned. will be ready for the fall meeting of 1904. In order, however, to guard against any possible delays in construction of grandstand, clubhouse, inability to obtain material promptly or for any other cause, the Westchester Association has a lease of Morris Park for two years. The length of the lease is a guarantee that the public will not be disappointed and that when racing moves from Morris Park it will go at once into greater and even more complete Beln Park. It is confidently expected that new course will be ready to the sma race, with no forfeits held out.

New Yorkers, conversant with racing affairs in France, look upon Rose de Mai as the winner of the Grand Prix, France's greatest race, which will be run next Sunday. Rose de Mai is the filly responsible for the latest ruling against Tod Sloan, which barred him from all French race tracks. She won the "French 1,000 guineas." Ransch, the American rider, who is under contract to William K. Vanderbilt, will in all probability have the mount on Rose de Mai in the Grand Prix. The Grand Prix is one of the richest, if not the richest, prizes for thoroughbreds in the world. The value to the winner runs from $60,000 to $75,000, which can be collected entire by the owner of the winner twenty-four hours after the race, with no forfeits held out.

It is worth noting that John E. Madden sold the first three horses in the Brooklyn handicap—Irish Lad. Gunfire and Heno. Last year he sold Irish Lad to Herman B. Duryea and Harry Payne Whitney for $20,-600 and part of any stake he subsequently won as a two-year-old. Late in her two-year-old career he sold Gunfire to W. C. Whitney for $10,000. Two years ago he sold Heno to Clarence Mackay for $20,000. All of the colts have sustained all that he said about them, and they are to-day a trio that any man should be pround to own. Irish Lad was bred at Lucien Appleby's Silver Brook farm, near Brookdale, N. J. Arrowgrass, the dam, was owned by Eugene Leigh and raced at Guttenburg during the winter months. "Gene" Leigh sold the colt to Madden, who developed him and resold him to Messrs. Whitney and Duryea.

Racing has certainly developed in France,

Racing has certainly developed in France, Cristall, Col.-Toledo ..... Racing has certainly developed in France, but the question French sportsmen have yet to ask themselves is, what benefit they will ultimately derive from the American invasion, which has certainly been warmly welcomed by them, says a foreign exchange. They have in more than one case shown a remarkable aptitude to forget that the English were the first to guide them in the road which permitted them to compete successfully against the best horses England could produce on more than one occaland could produce on more than one occasion. American trainers can ask and obtain more than their English colleagues, while there is not a jockey who has ever written his name in the annals of the French turf since its commencement who has ever been able to aspire to the retainers claimed by jockeys whose riding is certainly open to adverse criticism. Everything is arranged on American lines, and the man suspected of "doping" can command a stable of horses, although the suspicion may simply be founded on the "bluff" of an individual who copies the stable management in vegue and lives on a reputation accorded him by weak amour propre on the part of an owner who will not confess his error .- Sports of Attell After Young Corbett.

Abe Attell, the featherweight boxer, who was to have fought Terry McGovern at Fort Erie on Decoration day, will go to New York to-day and on his arrival there he will post $5,000 and issue a challenge to Young Corbett for a battle for twenty rounds for the featherweight championship f the world. Attell will give Young Corbett thirty days to either accept or ignore the defi. He says if Corbett refuses to give him a chance he will claim the 122-pound chamionship of the world and defend it against all comers. Attell says if the match is made he will agree to bet the forfeit money at the ringside on the result. Young Corbett and Attell can get an $8,000 purse at Fort Erie for the fight. Attell says if Corbett won't fight him he will try for another match with McGovern.

SAMANTHA WEST.

Woman Grew Tired of Being Considered Unholy by Her Husband-Other Court Cases.

In the Circuit Court yesterday afternoon Judge Allen granted Samantha West a divorce from her husband, William F. West, who failed to bid either his wife or his children good-bye when he left their home in Broad Ripple. West said he left home one midnight because he was afraid his wife would leave the next morning; that for many years he had been patient and had tried to convert her.

Mrs. West said she was tired of being considered unholy by her husband, who, she claims, is a religious fanatic.

Grand Jury Makes Report.

The Marion county grand jury made a partial report yesterday afternoon, cleaning up most of the jail cases and returning five indictments. Deputy Prosecutor Benedict intimated that the work was rather heavy and with the cases now on hand he could not see how the Stahl bribery case could be reached this session. Following are the indictments returned: Virgil Fultz, grand larceny; George Williams, petit larceny and receiving stolen goods; Lealie McCombs, assault and battery; William Finery, assault and battery with intent to kill; William Wright, assault and battery.

Edward Peters's Complaint. Edward Peters, of Flackville, desires to be separated from his wife Emma, alleging that she comes to this city frequently and gets intoxicated and that while in this condition she hires "hacks" at his expense to come home in. He also claims she is in the habit of feigning fits.

Jury Failed to Agree.

The jury failed to agree on a verdict and was discharged by Judge Alford in the Criminal Court yesterday afternoon after being out for more than twelve hours. The case was for assault and battery by Samuel Davis on William Carson, a street-car conductor.

Baseball Notes.

Pittsburg has broken National League records by scoring five successive shut-The Philadelphia National League club is trying to secure Odwell and Kerwin from the Louisville team. Tebeau will hardly sell these two men. George Tebeau has signed Roy Brashear, who was recently released by Philadelphia after a trial at second. He will join Louisville at once.

Manager Reisling, of Toledo, has decided to play Carrick, notwithstanding he has been boycotted by the unions at Toledo because of an alleged piece of spy work he did against the Metal Pollshers' Union in a Western city.

There will be no formal protest by Princeton arising out of the decision by Impire Holliday in the matter of a Princeton player batting out of turn in the game of baseball with Yale last Saturday. Captain Winslow of Yale raised the point of the proper batsman having failed to take position at bat and called for a ruling by the umpire under the National League rules. President Pulliam, to whom the matter was referred for construction of an official nature on the rule, declares that Umpire Holliday erred when he called Davis of Princeton out in the sixth inning for batting out of turn in the fifth. He should have called Wells, the proper batsman, out for not taking his turn at bat in the fifth inning and should have announced this fact to the official scorer.

Local Interest in Handienp.

The local poolrooms were crowded yesterday and men struggled to get their money down on the big Harlem Handicap run at Chicago. The poolrooms did not quit loser on the race as local plungers did not back McChesney, the winner, to any great ex-tent. Bets were made on every horse that started in the race.
